

Fanboy Expo Survival Guide

New to a convention and not sure what to expect? Have no fear! This Fanboy Expo survival guide will give you the low down on everything you need to know! From Q &A panels to autographs, this handy little guide will help newbies and even con vets to becoming an expert Fanboy or Fangirl!

Info Booth

Have a question? Ask the kind folks at the Info Booth! Here, they'll have all the info on where things are located, panel times, and more! You'll also be able to purchase Exclusive Fanboy t-shirts at the Info Booth.

ATMs

There are onsite ATMs, but shop smart and bring cash before the show! Lines at ATMs are usually super long.

Q&A

Located in the Fanboy Theatre upstairs, Q&A sessions are a great way to get to know your favorite celebrities better! These sessions will be hosted by one of our mediators and allow attendees to ask guests questions and listen to some interesting stories about the entertainment business. All sessions are at designated times all weekend so be sure to check out when your favorite panels are!

Autographs

Autographs are available for purchase at each celebrity table. All prices are set by celebrity management and not controlled by the folks at Fanboy Expo. Autographs usually include an 8x10 photo of your choice from the celebrity's table. You may have items of your own signed, but may be subjected to a different price if it's considered a premium item. Premium items are items that are larger than 8x10 prints. These often include but are not limited to posters, DVDs, action figures, POP vinyl figures, die cast cars, guitars, etc. Each celebrity has set rates on specific premium items. Aren't sure what is considered a premium item? Just ask a staff member and we'll be happy to help! FREE Signers will sign a fan supplied item for FREE! Additional autographs and photos are available for purchase at an extra rate. Some celebs only take cash, so be sure to visit the ATM before the show to avoid standing in longer lines! Prices are listed on the Fanboy Expo website.

Photo Ops

Get your picture with the Stars! Photo Ops are professionally photographed pictures with you and a celebrity on a high quality 8x10. Only certain celebrities are available for Photo Op sessions. Each session is at a scheduled time, so don't miss your session! Photos may be taken at the celebrity's table with your phone or camera, but certain restrictions do apply. Generally, a celebrity will take a picture if you buy an autograph. Some celebrities, however, do charge extra for photos. Pictures and prices are under each celebrity's discretion.

Vendors

Fanboy Expo prides itself in having diverse vendors on its show floor! Vendors often sell comic books, toys, statues, posters, t-shirts, and more. This is a perfect area for avid comic/toy collectors or those looking for gifts for their fellow geeky friends. Most vendors accept credit cards, but be sure to ask before purchase.

Cosplay

Cosplay of any shape and size is welcome! Whether it's store bought or built from scratch, any costume is acceptable at Fanboy Expo! Real weapons are not permitted, but props will be subjected to inspection upon arrival. There is a cosplay contest the Saturday of a Fanboy Expo event. Contest sign-up sheets are with our very own resident Chewbacca at the 501st booth. See Fanboy Expo website for all rules on the contest.

Food

While bringing your own food isn't permitted, there are concession stands for snacks! Market Square is also within walking distance and offers a wide variety of restaurants. On the strip by the University of TN campus on Cumberland Avenue, there are also dozens of fast food restaurants.

Kid's Area

Bringing your little Princess or Super Hero to the show? We have a designated kids area where they can practice their Super Hero in training skills with nerf guns, coloring sheets, and more! Parents MUST be in attendance as this is not a Child Care area.

Artist Alley

Love looking at art? Enjoy seeing handmade items? Artist Alley is for you! Artists from all over the country showcase their items for purchase! From paintings and sculptures to jewelry and bows- Artist Alley has it all!

After Parties

On Friday night after the show closes, VIPs have an all access screening to Star Wars: The Force Awakens. Saturday night, the Party is open to the public. Celebrity guest Eric Stuart will be performing with his band. The Staff of Fanboy Expo will also be bringing their talents and performing with their band. It's a fun time for fans to hang out and listen to some great music with fellow Fanboys!
